Tartar Teen Talk

By KAREN HESTER, DA 4-381

Class nomination and calls were held during the past week. The results will be given at the election dance tomorrow night. Good luck to all of you.

The senior class committees have been meeting quite regularly all month. Everything is just about set for the last week.

Torrance Beach is the scene for all "Tartar Tan Lovers." Let's see more of you out there over the week ends.

The Theopians had another snow cone sale last week end, as always, the cones were delicious.

Also, the freshmen class had a candied apple sale last week.

The seniors took their annual trip to Catalina last Friday. We boarded the buses at 9 a.m. and they took us to the docks in Wilmington. There we boarded the water taxis and then off to Catalina. Besides bicycle riding, horse back riding and electric cars, seniors went speed boat riding or just stayed on the beach. All in all, everyone had a terrific time.

Billy Mescham's father's house in Inglewood was the scene of a "Before the Trip" party for the seniors last Thursday night. The Casuals were the featured band, and everyone was asked to sign the guest list as they walked in the door. Everyone will have to agree it was one of the biggest parties of the year.

Last Thursday the cheerleaders and song queens had their try-outs. The majorettes and flag twirlers for next year were announced. They are majorettes

Laureen Maguire, Judy Nance, Sharon Blackesley, Marie Turner, Gerry Day, Loretta Robison and Diane St. Martin.
